Tansun's unique infra tan unit can be used for therapeutic applications.

Infra red has been used for local treatment of muscle pains for many years; however now it is possible to offer a full body treatment. When infra red is combined with UV, it forms the next best thing to sunlight. It can offer benefits to acne, eczema, psoriasis, ease arthritis & help soothe muscle pain. All this and a tan!

Soothing, relaxing and healing! A questionnaire will establish the best treatment length for you.

per minute £1.00

per 1 hour course (valid for 6 months) £45.00

Lotions for use with this treatment are available at reception.
